

Does Your Child Have An Interest In The Arts? The Illinois Shakespeare Festival Offers Summer Camps For Kids 1-12!

The Illinois Shakespeare Festival Summer Camps for Youth are there to teach kids communication skills, problem solving techniques, and how to create expressively through theatre!

Groundlings: 1-4 grades $150

7/22- 7/26 M-F 9 a.m. - Noon

Groundlings will learn the basics of the theatre starting with Shakespeare's language! The students will perform a cumulative performance using what they learned over the week.

Apprentices: 5-8 grades $300

7/8- 7/26 M-F 1- 5 p.m

Apprentices will focus on character work, stage combat, movement and voice as they work as a company to produce a Shakespeare inspired play.

Shakespeare's Players: 9 a.m.- 12 p.m. $300

7/8- 7/26 M-F 1- 5 p.m.

The Players will be taking the skills they learned as apprentices and will be using them to produce a one-act version of "As You Like It".

*All performances will be on July 26th

Register for camp by going to the Illinois Shakespeare Festival website: www.illinoisshakes.com and look under "Educate". You can e-mail Cristen Monson at cbmonso@ilstu.edu. See you at camp!
